Carson,

This is to comply with the request of informing the City of Smyrna in the manner of alcohol dispersement and other issues at the Jazz Under the Gazebo event this coming November.

This listing will attempt to fully cover the aspects of alcohol delivery, sales and other items:

- All attendees will have paid to attend event. They will receive wristbands upon entry and will only be served if wearing a wristband.
- Volunteers will also be wearing a wristband. There will be approximately 15-20 volunteers.
- Access to event will be located in front of The Vineyard Wine Market and manned by event coordinators.
- Distributors will be donating wine and/or beer for this event.
- Volunteers will be serving, in 2 ounce pours to the attendees. Distributors will not be allowed to pour.
- No other alcohol will be allowed. With the help of the City of Smyrna, we will barricade, where permitted, the streets and sidewalks to prevent walkups.
- No sales of alcohol will be allowed at event for immediate consumption or to take home that evening. However, The Vineyard Wine Market may accept orders for wine requested that evening to be fulfilled at a later date.
- Pouring of Wine & Beer will begin at 6:00pm and Closing of event and last pouring of Wine & Beer will be at 9:45pm.
- Music will be completed at 9:55pm.
- Event wrap will begin promptly and with expectations of completion between 11:30pm and 12:00am.
