Approval of revisions to the City of Smyrna Public Art Policy and authorize the Mayor to sign and execute related documents.

Citywide

ISSUE AND BACKGROUND:

The purpose of the Public Art Policy is to establish a program for public art in the city. This policy establishes guidelines to ensure a consistent decision-making process related to the acceptance, placement, display, and long-term maintenance of public art in City owned facilities. The Public Art Policy was initially adopted on February 21, 2022 with processes outlined for public art donations. Staff revised the policy to add sections on publicly funded/commissioned art, loans, deaccessioning, and other guidelines for art implementation.

RECOMMENDATION / REQUESTED ACTION:

Administrative staff recommends approval of revisions to the City of Smyrna Public Art Policy and authorize the Mayor to sign and execute related documents.
