4. Review of Current M&C Agenda

A. COW2024-018 Review of the May 6, Mayor and Council Meeting Notice and Agenda

Mayor Norton reviewed the May 6, 2024 Mayor and Council agenda.

Scott Cochran, City Attorney, explained item ATH2024-074. The Wetherbrooke Subdivision asked the City to maintain the meters for each home and provide billing for their neighborhood. The agreement requires them to change out their water meters. There will be no additional responsibilities for the City for maintaining their water lines.

There was no further discussion.

5. Other Business / Staff Comment

Joe Bennett, City Administrator, provided updates on the following:

- Received a notice from US Attorney's Office which stated they are visiting the Community Center on May 31, 2024 to perform an ADA compliance check. The Fire Department inspected the Community Center and found nothing that would be of concern.
- Still working through the splash pad in Ward 7. Had a meeting with Pond first of this week when they admitted to underpricing what they had presented before. Even after adjusting, they are still well over what they submitted.

Mayor Norton stated that today was the SBA luncheon. He was able to announce updates of many of the projects in Smyrna.

Councilmember Rickey N. Oglesby, Jr. – Attended the Jonquil Festival Sunday afternoon and said it was well-attended and well-received. He was able to speak to a lot of residents who love the new layout. He has reserved North Cooper Lake Park for an event in July, and he expresses how amazing it looks there.

Councilmember Glenn Pickens – CSX met with some residents in Ward 1 last week. The meeting went really well. It relieves Smyrna's involvement, and talks are now between residents and CSX.

Councilmember Travis Lindley – Thanks to team for the lights at S Cobb Dr and Concord. Thanks to Councilmember Hines and Judge Murphy for the pop up clinic. Thanks to staff for the Jonquil Festival. Today was the first Church Redevelopment Advisory Committee meeting - "Downtown to Downtown" – lots of great people on the committee.

Councilmember Latonia P. Hines – Smyrna Arts Council hosted a wonderful jazz concert at the old Smyrna firehouse. She congratulated the City for hosting so many well-done events on the same day – the Jonquil Festival, the Fire Department Open House, the pop up legal clinic, and the jazz concert. She announced on May 18 she will be hosting an event for kids called "Getting Ready for Summer" at Tolleson Park.

Councilmember Charles Welch – He worked a booth at the Jonquil Festival and spoke to many residents that are new to Smyrna. The new downtown park is great. He also reminded all that he will not be present at Monday’s Council meeting due to travel. He reminded all of the May 4 Garden Tours.
